

CHASE HOME MUSEUM TEMPORARY EXHIBITIONS GUIDELINES

PURPOSE

The Chase Home Museum of Utah Folk Arts is the only museum in the country dedicated to displaying a state-owned collection of contemporary folk art. It features objects made by living Utah artists from the state's American Indian, rural, occupational and ethnic communities. The Museum is dedicated to preserving and promoting Utah's folk and traditional arts while providing a space for new work featuring emerging folk art genres or innovations of tradition to enter the public discourse and engage the community. We accept exhibition proposals for 8-12 week exhibitions.

ELIGIBILITY

We welcome proposals from Utah artists age 18 and over as well as from partnering organizations. Proposals may include group shows or larger curated exhibits. All work must be original.

EXHIBITION SELECTION

Chase Home staff will review and select proposals for the gallery. Quality, completion and clarity of the proposal as well as submitted work samples, target audience, and overall exhibit content will all be considered. We welcome proposals with interactive components in the form of artist demonstrations or performances. Please specify if any works included in the proposal have exhibited in other Utah venues within the last 5 years. Chase Home staff reserves the right to make final decisions on which works will be placed on exhibit. Museum staff will work with you to revise proposals and exhibition plans to better fulfill the Chase Home's mission should such work be required.
